ONE STOP EBOOK SHOP TO SURVIVE THE LIBRARY CLOSURE

SORA is the ASD ebook platform. These ebooks and audio books can be accessed on a computer or mobile device with the free SORA app. They are also compatible with Kindle. Pro tip: you can add the Anchorage Public Library's ebook collection to your SORA app!

User Name: lastname.firstname@asdk12.org

Password: same as your ASD Google Drive password

Thanks to a partnership with the Anchorage Public Library, most students can use their ASD library numbers to access Hoopla ebooks.

User Name: your 14 digit library ID number

Password/PIN: last 4 digits of your library ID

Tumblebooks titles are available thanks to our state library and can be read in your browser at any time. No downloads and no hold lists. If you can access the Internet, you can access Tumblebooks!

There are three portals: Kids, Teen, and Audio.

Ebsco eBooks are available through mid-June through the state library. These titles can be read online at any time, and some can be downloaded as PDF files. There are special collections for school and public libraries. The grade level resources are mostly nonfiction, but there is a lot of fiction content in the public library collection.

For the little ones out there, Sesame Street ebooks are available from the state library and come in four formats: read, read and listen, read and watch, or read and play.

AND MORE!

A number of commercial vendors have temporarily waived subscription fees due to the COVID-19 pandemic. These include:

ABDO Digital Bookshelf - nonfiction, hi/lo titles, graphic novels, and more

Audible Stories - a story collection students can temporarily stream for free

Junior Library Guild - so many great titles! Read online or through the app

National Geographic - math and science books, as well as free AP study guides

There are also many web based resources:

My Shakespeare - online, media-rich, mobile-friendly Shakespeare plays

Project Gutenberg - over 60,000 free eBooks free to download or read online
